

T.I.M.E. Network 1989-2013

TOP INDUSTRIAL MANAGERS
FROM EUROPE

Christopher Cripps
Directeur des Relations Internationales
Ecole Centrale Paris

In 1989, led by Ecole Centrale Paris, 16 European Technical & Engineering Universities founded the T.I.M.E. network with the objective of:

1- Cross-sharing their best students in a double degree framework:

- ✓ Over 330 ECTS
- ✓ at least 3 semesters abroad
- ✓ fee waiver at host university

2- Promoting and supporting Joint products:

- ✓ seasonal schools
- ✓ shared tools and database for the community
- ✓ support to joint initiatives such as Erasmus Mundus

3- and more recently developing a Joint doctorate framework

From a pure peer-based network, T.I.M.E. evolved in 1997 to a 1901-Association with:

- Bye-laws
- Officers - In 2011-2013
 - Presidency: Centrale Paris
 - Vice-Presidency: TUM
 - Treasurer: KTH
 - Secretary: ULB
 - General Secretary: Paul Crowther (staff)
- An Advisory Committee (3 meetings/year): 10 members (being extended to 13) renewed by 1/3 every 2 years – except Centrale Paris which is a permanent member
- An Admission Committee: 7 members appointed by the AC
- A General Assembly (1/year): 54 members from 21 countries

54 Members - 21 countries – 4 continents

- ✓ More than 4500 double degrees since 1989
- ✓ Roughly 300 DD/year
- ✓ T.I.M.E. joint programmes: TESS, MathComp
- ✓ Regular calls for projects: 3 projects/year for ~€15 000 each
- ✓ T.I.M.E. support, expertise & quality assurance for Erasmus Mundus programs (Willpower, TANDEM, BEAM, Heritage, IT4BI...)
- ✓ T.I.M.E. International Doctoral Charter and Joint/Cotutelle programs
- ✓ T.I.M.E. Alumni Association in 2013

- Continuation of the double degree- still of great interest and value
- Joint participation in EU programs
- Joint Research and Expertise such as the doctorate
- The network is attractive overseas (Brazil, China, Japan, Oceania) and the Association has set a target of 75 members (at least 2/3 European)
- Participation in the EU Higher Education & Research Space using its wealth & diversity

What we like in T.I.M.E. ?

100% of the members answered:

«a network of Peers and an exchange platform for high Level, high Quality, Excellent, Esteemed, Trustful, Friendly, Easy-going, Human, European and non-European Institutions with Top-Level Inter-Cultural Students and Alumni»
